Heritage Hotels and Resorts in the Himalayas

Treasure Trove in the Mountains

“Darjeeling and Sikkim are amongst the most picturesque Himalayan destinations in North East India and the Elgin Hotels & Resorts brand is synonymous today as a top heritage and boutique hotel brand for those seeking both luxury and serenity holidaying in the lap of the mighty Himalayas.

In the care of the Elgin staff who are forever eager to serve and care for their guests the experience stays for a lifetime, long after the vacation actually ends.

The unique experience of being personally cared for by both the staff of these beautifully crafted hotels and the owners themselves sets Elgin apart from the others, what is born out of this is a leading luxury heritage hotel chain in the Himalayas of Darjeeling and Sikkim exuding warm hospitality and exquisite homely interiors not to mention the impeccable service and fine cuisine of course and above all a very caring staff, it is this fine blend that creates an experience that is both warm and intimate and the four jewels in the mountains.

The Elgin Hotel, Darjeeling was built in 1887 by the Maharaja of Cooh Behar as a royal Manor House, the hotel is situated in the heart of Darjeeling town. Six thousand feet up in the Himalayas this hotel is a celebration of the elegance and grace of the Colonial era in this Queen of Hill Stations.

The Elgin Silver Oaks Kalimpong, is another beautiful jewel that is a must visit. The hotel was once the home of a famous jute magnate, the landscaped gardens of this beautiful property is a profusion of colors, one is treated to breath-taking views of the kalimpong river valleys from here. The natural décor is characteristic and the imposing Kanchenjunga can be seen on a clear day from the quaint hotel garden gazebos, the tea seems to be flavored by the refreshing winds of the Himalayas.

The third jewel in the crown is the Nor-Khill Gangtok now rechristened as the Elgin Nor-Khill. The Elgin in Gangtok is a celebration of the elegance and grace of the Kings of Sikkim, as you enter the hotel, warmth hugs you and makes you feel at home with a glass of sparkling cherry liquor and a silken Khada (scarf) draped around your neck. The “Nor-Khill” actually means the wealth of Sikkim and this hotel preserves just that.

Finally the crown itself is the Elgin Mount Pandim in the town of Pelling in Sikkim, this Elgin resort is set in eight acres of virgin forest and landscaped gardens, it revokes the old world charm created by its first owners - the royal family of Sikkim and offers a peaceful retreat about one hundred and fifty kilometers from Siliguri, with a glorious view of the Singalila range. The three hundred year old Pemayangtse monastery is right next to the resort on a verdant hill top covered by moist temperate Oak forests.

A warm cozy ambiance, comfortable rooms, personalized service and the care and vibrant personality of Mr Diamond Oberoi himself the man and craftsman of these fine jewels make you leave with sweet memories - “an Elgin Experience”.
